Near Future, in respect to the execution of which it acts as focal point within the United Nations system,

Bearing in mind that 1995 will mark the centenary of the establishment of the International Cooperative Alliance,

Noting with satisfaction the important recommendations of the report directed towards ensuring the best possible means of dealing with the issue of cooperatives in the light of their broad significance in contributing to the solution of major economic and social problems,

Welcoming the recommendation in paragraph 4 (a) of the report of the Secretary-General, and bearing in mind the substantial support shown by Governments and by the international cooperative movement for the idea of proclaiming an international year of cooperatives, or alternatively, an international decade of cooperatives, and of observing an international day of cooperatives,

Indicating its appreciation to government agencies, national organizations representing cooperatives, United Nations specialized agencies and other organizations, especially the Committee for the Promotion and Advancement of Cooperatives, for their valuable contribution,

1. Commends the report of the Secretary-General on the status and role of cooperatives in the light of new economic and social trends; 1/

2. Recommends that the General Assembly proclaim the year 1996 as the International Year of Cooperatives and that during 1995 an International Day of Cooperatives should be observed;

3. Encourages the United Nations Centre for Social Development and Humanitarian Affairs to redouble its efforts of support and coordination in order to achieve the social policy objectives set forth in the Guiding Principles for Developmental Social Welfare Policies and Programmes in the Near Future, in respect to the execution of which it acts as focal point within the United Nations system;

4. Invites government agencies, national organizations representing cooperatives, United Nations specialized agencies and other organizations, especially the Committee for the Promotion and Advancement of Cooperatives, to maintain and step up their programmes of support to the international cooperative movement;

5. Also invites, as the Economic and Social Council has already done in its resolution 1668 (LII) of 1 June 1972, the United Nations specialized agencies that have a substantial interest in cooperatives, especially the World Bank, the International Fund for Agricultural Development and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, as well as other concerned international organizations of cooperatives that are not yet members of the Committee for the Promotion and Advancement of Cooperatives, to become members at an early date and to ensure its effectiveness by their contribution of appropriate resources;

6. Recommends that the General Assembly request the Secretary-General to maintain and step up the support provided by the United Nations to the programmes and objectives of the international cooperative movement and to submit a report on the implementation of this resolution, through the Economic and Social Council, to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session.
